HANDS OFF IN MEXICO IS AMERICAN POLICY

Indications Today Are That the United States Government Will Continue to Refuse Recognition to Huerta and the New Mexican Congress.

FINANCIAL TROUBLES MAY OUST HUERTA

Impending Attack on Tuxpam by the Rebels Causes U. S. Consul Payne to Call for Protection, and the Battleship Louisiana Was Ordered to Proceed From Vera Cruz.

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, November 11.—The battleship Louisiana was dispatched from here today to Tuxpam in response to another urgent appeal for protection from Arthur C. Payne, the United States consular agent, that the rebels are believed to be in very strong force near Tuxpam and an attack is momentarily expected.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., November 11.—Indications today were that the American policy toward Mexico, which, it is hoped, the nations of the world generally would follow, still was "Hands Off". The general interpretation of the situation was that the United States by giving foreign powers detailed information of its own determination to refuse to recognize the acts of the new Mexican congress, had indicated a desire that the powers generally refuse from financial dealings with the Huerta government. So far as could be learned there has been no specific request for support by the powers, but that there has been a plain intimation that the Washington government believes the collapse of the Huerta regime is unavoidable if foreign aid be withheld. Without financial aid and with its machinery of government pronounced illegal, officials here expect to see a state of affairs that may force Huerta to eliminate himself.

Washington, Nov. 11.—It is possible now to give authoritatively, for the first time, some of the details of the administration's Mexican policy.

Huerta must go. That is the unalterable determination of President Wilson and his advisers. How this most difficult and dangerous task can be accomplished is a matter yet to be worked out. With this determination as the basis of the president's policy, Huerta's acts as head of the Mexican government will not be recognized by the United States nor will this government recognize the acts of the Mexican congress about to be called into being. Huerta has been informed of this determination, and so also have the European and other governments having interests in Mexico.

No limit, however, has been set by this government for the retirement of Huerta and no threat of force in the event of his failure to yield has been conveyed to him. These facts, authoritatively announced, have served to clear the atmosphere here regarding the Mexican situation. President Wilson and his advisers have failed to move Huerta by moral suasion, and are now face to face with the unpleasant duty of being obliged to decide upon a course of action for his elimination by some other means.

Evidence gathered from many sources indicates that President Wilson is still determined to avail himself of every possible expedient before turning to actual intervention by United States troops. It seems certain now that he will also try other lines of action before suggesting the lifting of the embargo on arms and ammunition along the Mexican border.

The president's sole hope before resorting to either of these two expedients seems to be a possible acquiescence in this government's policy by all the European powers and a shutting off at the source of all financial supplies for the Mexican dictator. If this can be brought about, administration officials believe that Huerta will be obliged to yield. Conferences that Secretary of State Bryan has been holding for two or three days with representatives of foreign governments lends strength to the belief that this government has hopes in this direction.

NO FRICTION YET

London, Nov. 11.—Emphatic denial was given by Premier Asquith to reports that there had been friction between Great Britain and the United States over the policy adopted by the Washington administration in the Mexican situation. The premier said: "Between the United States and ourselves there has been from time to time an exchange of views, without the least trace of friction upon either side and with the most perfect cordiality."

LIND SHOWS GARDEN

Mexico City, Nov. 11.—John Lind, President Wilson's special envoy, has had several conferences in the last two days with British Minister Garden, and it is stated that the latter has materially changed his views and has been won over to the view of the situation here which is held by the Washington administration.

MAIL CARRIER STOLE $10,000

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Ill., November 11.—Theft of money and jewelry valued at $10,000 from a mail sack was disclosed by Col. James Stuart, postoffice inspector here. The crime as alleged by Col. Stuart, is said to have been committed by Albert Tardy, a mail wagon driver.

The theft occurred yesterday. Suspicion was aroused when the wagon containing four sacks was found abandoned at the Union Station. These sacks contained $4000 in money and gems which had not been disturbed. Tardy's wife was found today with some difficulty as Tardy had given his address at a number which proved to be a vacant lot. She said Tardy visited her for a few moments last night, told her he had stolen $10,000 from a mail sack and would write to her as soon as he escaped "across the border." Col. Stuart said Tardy served time in the Missouri penitentiary for highway robbery and also at Joliet for attempting to steal a truck load of trunks.

He was formerly the commander of the Hawaii station of the navy.

WOULD AMEND CONSTITUTION AGAINST BOOZE

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, November 11.—Nation-wide prohibition to be established through an amendment to the Federal constitution, was the keynote sounded before the National convention of Anti-Saloon League and allied bodies. Several thousands of persons stood up and cheered speeches by Rev. Purly A. Baker, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League and others, urging the abolition of the liquor traffic, and that the question be put up to Congress at once. United States Senator Newell Sanders, of Tennessee, said a President of the United States unequivocally in favor of national prohibition would be necessary before that could be accomplished. He afterwards said he did not mean to make particular reference to President Wilson. "We need a new governor," said Purly A. Baker. He declared that the liquor license law was a disgrace to the state of Ohio. The license law, he said, made possible the greatest political machine Ohio ever knew.

ARSON SQUAD WIELDS TORCH

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 11.—The Militant Suffragist arson squad is busily at work in the British Isles today. Cactus House, in Alexandria Park, with a collection of rare articles valued at $50,000 was burned. Reybrook, a fine mansion, near Bristol, was damaged by fire. The bowling and tennis house at Catford, in South east London was burned.

CREW OF 40 PERISH IN LAKE WRECK

By Associated Press.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 11.—When the tug Sinia City returned today from an all-night watch over the big steel freighter in Lake Huron, she could add nothing concerning the identity of the vessel.

The name of the derelict lies far beneath the water and the waves are rolling high.

Capt. Reed, of this city, is of the belief that all of the 30 or 40 members of the crew of the 600-ft. freighter have been drowned. Capt. Plough of the local life saving station, started with a crew for the wreck.

Capt. Reed also ventured the opinion that another vessel may be on the bottom of Lake Huron near where the overturned steamer was first discovered. He can only account for the steamer turning over by a shifting of her cargo or as the result of a collision.

The probable identity of the ship wrecked here is the H. B. Hawgood, of Cleveland, which left Buffalo Friday night. Similar description is given as the reason for the opinion.

LIGHT SHIP BELIEVED LOST

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, Nov. 11.—Light Ship No. 82 and crew of 8 persons, stationed on Lake Erie at Point Abino, 15 miles west of this city, are believed to have foundered in the storm.

STORM SWEEPS EAST WITH RELENTLESS FURY

Snow is Twenty Inches Deep in West Virginia and Still Falling—Transportation is Practically Suspended.

CLEVELAND DEMORALIZED NOW FACES A FAMINE

Half of the Homes in the City Are Without Light—Telephones Out of Commission With 3000 Poles Down—Few Trains Manage to Breathe the Storm—Wholesale Houses Unable to Deliver Goods and City May Go Hungry.

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 11.—Cleveland today is still paralyzed from the worst storm in her history, covering 48 hours of snow, rain and sleet. Traffic is crippled to the extent of being practically annulled and business is at a standstill, with no hope of recovering for many hours or days.

One half the street car system is out of commission and one half the homes have no electric lights. Telephones are only partially in operation. No telephone or telegraph wires reach the outside world. Few trains are reaching the city and few are trying to leave. Nothing has been heard from trains that have left.

The damage sustained by telephone and telegraph systems is estimated at $1,000,000. Three thousand poles are down, many having fallen on street cars. A food famine is now threatened as there are only two days provisions in the hands of dealers, and wholesale houses are unable to deliver goods. Eight thousand head of cattle, hogs and sheep in trains are stalled outside of the city.

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia is still under a blanket of a foot of snow, but conditions are improving. Telegraph and telephone lines are being restored, railways have dug out trains buried for hours.

TWENTY INCHES AND STILL SNOWING

By Associated Press.

Grafton, W. Va., November 11.—More than 20 inches of snow has fallen since Sunday night and this morning it was still snowing. The B. & O. R. R. is digging out of the worst blockades it has known in a dozen years and trains are from 8 to 12 hours late.

TRAFFIC SUSPENDED

By Associated Press.

Fairmont, W. Va., November 11.—Transportation lines, with few exceptions, are closed and travel in and out of Fairmont is difficult. The snow has continued almost without interruption since Sunday night and telegraph service has not yet been restored.

SUFFERING FEARED

By Associated Press.

Wheeling, W. Va., November 11.—It began snowing this morning over the Panhandle of West Virginia and reports from other sections to the south and east show the storm is general. The state is still in the grip of Sunday's blizzard and it is feared that if the snow continues much greater damage and suffering will result.

In the largest drifts known for years. One train arrived from Cleveland after a struggle on the road lasting 30 hours.

Many are fearful that a sudden thaw, converting the heavy snow into water, will cause floods in the Ohio River and tributaries, but the weather forecast predicts low temperatures for at least 24 hours.

LATEST REPORTS ARE APPALLING

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, Ohio, via private wire to Pittsburg, November 11.—Cleveland is buried under 21 inches of snow. Its streets are filled with a tangled mass of broken and twisted wires and thousands upon thousands of its inhabitants are in imminent danger of suffering from lack of food. Three persons have been killed and ten are missing and are believed to have been frozen to death, and a great steamship is stranded on the beach, its captain and 22 sailors waiting for the death that may come at any moment because mountainous seas roll in from Lake Erie. It is still snowing and unless the storm, which has continued since last Sunday abates no one can tell what the ultimate toll of dollars and lives may be. The loss is already estimated at $2,000,000, half of which will fall upon the telephone and telegraph companies. Normal conditions cannot be restored within a week and if a thaw should come followed by the inevitable flood, the whole lake country will suffer severely. Conditions have been growing worse since Monday night, when half the city was plunged into darkness, the lighting plant being broken down by the gale. So complete was paralysis of transportation facilities, it was deemed best to let the dead lay in the places where they had died and no funerals will be held until the storm has abated. There has been no delivery of groceries, bread, meat, milk or coal since Saturday and suffering is widespread. One of the greatest fears is of fire. Already one fire has done $100,000 damage. All schools of the city are closed.

$3,000,000 DAMAGES

By Associated Press.

New York, November 11.—The United States Booking Office of America, promoters of theatrical enterprises, were made defendants in a Sherman Anti-Trust suit for $3,000,000 damages, filed today in the Federal court by H. B. Marinelli, of New York, London and Paris.

$20,000,000 ADDED TO MRS. MORRIS' WEALTH

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Ill., November 11.—Mrs. Helen Swift Morris was put in control of $20,000,000 of the estate of her husband, Edward Morris, by the will filed in the Probate court here today. This disposition of the packer's estate makes Mrs. Morris, who inherited a large fortune from her father, Gustavus Swift, one of the wealthiest women in the world.

Conductors and Trainmen Are Granted Increase of Pay.

ARBITRATION BOARD'S AWARD

Over Seventy-three Thousand Employees On Roads East of the Mississippi and North of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers Affected by the Decision—Men Sought Increase of Fifteen Per Cent.

New York, Nov. 11.—The award of the arbitration board in the case of the conductors and trainmen of the eastern railroads, which was made public by the arbitrators, give an increase on present wages of 7 per cent. The arbitration board estimates that this will involve a total increase in the payrolls of the 41 railroads represented in the arbitration of about eight-tenths of 1 per cent of the total operating expenses of the roads, or approximately $6,000,000 a year.

The arbitration of these demands was the first under the Newlands amendment to the Erdman act. Under the law a majority of the board should render a decision, and the award was not unanimous. A. H. Smith and W. W. Atterbury, the representatives of the roads on the board, filing a dissenting opinion.

In the award the arbitrators say that while their action is not based entirely on the increased cost of living, yet this matter is basic. The demands affected 73,266 employees, of whom 19,903 are conductors and 53,363 are trainmen on roads east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers.

If the demands of these employees had been granted in full it would have increased the payrolls $18,000,000 a year, and even according to the estimates of the leaders of the trainmen and conductors would have meant increases in pay aggregating 15 per cent. The award is retroactive to Oct. 1 of this year, and will be in force for a year from that time. It will continue in force like a regular agreement, unless toward the end of a year a month's notice is given by either side of a desire to change or end it. The Erie railroad was not represented in the arbitration, but agreed to abide by the award. Eight or nine other roads were not represented, but are expected to accept the conditions of the award.

$3,800 MISSING

Rocks Substituted For Cash Which Was Taken From a Tin Box.

Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Detectives are endeavoring to fix the guilt for the theft of $3,800 a two weeks' payroll of the Ironclay Brick company plant at Shawnee, O., which was taken from a tin payroll box sent in care of the United States Express company from the company's office in this city. The theft was discovered when A. F. Grimes, superintendent of the plant at Shawnee, opened the tin box and found two rocks carefully wrapped in paper, where envelopes containing the salary of the employees of the firm should have been.

INDIAN SUMMER WEATHER A FROST

The "Indian Summer" weather recently predicted, has been arctic weather instead and many thermometers early Tuesday morning registered as low as 15 degrees above zero, while the Gossard thermometer registered as low as 19 above zero at six o'clock.

At eight o'clock Monday morning the mercury hovered about 25, dropping slowly until Tuesday morning, when it had fallen six degrees.

One man claims that the mercury at his country residence hovered around 12 above zero.

A great deal of suffering has resulted throughout the country, where the live stock has been exposed to the sudden drop into genuine old winter, while virtually all farm work has been at a standstill, particularly corn husking.

WARM REPLY TO DAUGHERTY

Finley Charges the Latter With Inconsistency.

Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Chairman William L. Finley of the Democratic state executive committee came back at Chairman Harry M. Daugherty of the Republican state executive committee for opposing the short ballot amendments by asserting that Mr. Daugherty had helped get the legislature to submit these proposals, which he later denounced as not providing for the sort of short ballot the Republican platform had endorsed. Mr. Finley says: "Governor Cox was elected on a platform which declared for the short ballot; he pledged all of that platform all of his support. Others may have stultified themselves, but Governor Cox remained consistent throughout."

HEAVY FIRE LOSS

Factory at Norwood Destroyed and Waterworks Plant Damaged.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 11.—Fire at Norwood, a suburb, destroyed the plant, stables and lumber yard of the Boss Washing Machine company, seriously damaged the Norwood waterworks plant, and burned two residences. Part of the roof of the waterworks plant fell and the employees shut down the engines and fled, causing a water shortage until water was turned in from the Cincinnati mains. The municipal electric light plant in the same building was badly damaged. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

LESSENS DANGER

New York, Nov. 11.—Ben R. Newcomb of this city has discovered a new method of preparing bichloride of mercury tablets, which he contends will prevent accidental deaths from this poison. Mr. Newcomb said: "The new discovery provides a preventive manner of preparing poisons such as bichloride of mercury that when taken internally no harmful results will occur."

CHAUTAUQUA STILL HANGS IN BALANCE

The Odd Fellows, a committee of whom have been investigating plans for a chautauqua to be held here next summer, have dropped the matter, but others who have been interested are investigating the feasibility of a chautauqua and are hopeful of organizing and offering a good one some time next summer.

Such events have proven popular in adjoining cities, and have been profitable to those in charge, as well as to the town in general, and the result of the negotiations here will be watched with interest.

Both the Redpath Lyceum bureau and the Colt bureau have had representatives here who are offering attractions for the proposed chautauqua.

NEW TIME TABLES FOR VARIOUS ROADS

Within the next few days the winter schedule on the C. H. & D. and B. & O. railroads will go into effect, but no material changes of time are anticipated with the probable exception of the C. H. & D. Sunday trains, and a change is expected in them.

A few minutes difference may be made in some of the B. & O. trains, but this is hardly anticipated.

On November 30th a new time card will go into effect on the Pennsylvania lines, but no changes of time are expected.

So far as known there will be no changes on the D. T. & I.

COST OF THE PANAMA CANAL

It is announced that another appropriation of $37,000,000 will be sufficient for the completion of the Panama Canal, making a total of $375,000,000 which that work will have cost us.

Lesseps reckoned in 1879 that a tide level canal 28 feet deep would cost only $114,000,000 and could be built in seven or eight years, including a ship tunnel through the mountains which were supposed to exist. But in 1887 his estimate was $351,000,000 and twenty years for a 15-foot lock canal. By the end of 1888 the work was scarcely two-fifths done and nearly $400,000,000 had been spent, wasted and stolen. The new technical committee after the debacle estimated that the canal could be finished in ten years for $100,000,000.

American estimates have also varied. The third Canal Commission in 1900 thought that a canal could be built for $142,342,579—admirable exactitude!—apart from the cost of securing the land, which would be so great as to be prohibitive. The Spooner bill, under which the canal is being constructed, appropriated not more than $145,000,000 for the entire work.

The Panama Canal, as now completed, is of course vastly deeper, wider, more commodious and more substantial than was ever dreamed of when the work was begun. When this enlargement of its plan is considered the increase in cost does not seem excessive, and the financial aspects of the enterprise may be compared favorably with its engineering achievement.—New York Tribune.

STEEL ON GROUND FOR NEW BRIDGES

Progress on the work of restoring the damaged railroad lines in the district affected by the floods in the Central West, last spring, is indicated by the rapidity with which permanent bridges are being installed to replace those damaged or carried away by the high water.

The structural steelwork to be used in the double-track bridge of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton line over the Miami River, at Hamilton, O., is on the ground and is being erected.

Poetry For Today

FORGET IT.

Here's a bit of advice to those who are down,
On whom luck and fortune seem always to frown;
You may have a share of trial and care,
But don't be down-hearted—there lies despair.
Whatever comes along, be it great pain or loss,
Each one in this life can't get thru without cross.
But—forget it.

What a beautiful day it was when you rose,
No clouds to awaken your mind from repose;
You went on your way with your heart full of joy.
That felt like defying the world to alloy,
But then came a snub that went straight to the heart,
And then with the sunshine your life had no part.
But—forget it.

You never have a trouble half as big as you take it,
For fortune's rebuff is just what you make it.
Come evil, come woe, you've just got to bear it;
It's childish you looking for others to bear it.
Whatever you do, do not fret or repine,
It will do you no good to wince and to whine.
Just—forget it.

Forgetting what's gloomy, but treasuring the good,
This life is a garden of flowers in bud;
Most are sweet scented, there are some that look gay,
While a few there remain we wish would decay;
But viewed as a whole 'tis replete with much joy,
Just seen in odd corners are things that annoy.
So—forget it.

—Tid Pitts.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Eugene V. Debs, thrice a candidate for president on the Socialist ticket, told friends in Denver recently, where he has been on a vacation for some weeks, that he has just paid off the last of a debt of $22,000 which the American Railway Union owed when this organization went out of existence three years ago. Mr. Debs assumed the debt himself.

The new herds of bison, or buffalo, in Oklahoma are said to be doing well as are also the herds in the Wichita forest reservation. They frequent the very same trails and wallows that the early herds of buffalo made many years ago. There are many buffalo in the national buffalo range in Montana, and in the fenced range in Yellowstone Park. A herd in Canada is by far the largest on the continent. It has 1000 animals or more.

Establishment of the beet sugar industry in Colorado, which state now has an annual output of $20,000,000 worth of sugar, has brought about the consolidation of the city and county of Denver, which saves the tax payers thousands of dollars yearly, paid off the state debt, responsible for the substantial improvement of 30,000 miles of state highways, which are attracting thousands of motor tourists to the state each summer; responsible for Denver adopting the commission form of government and assisted greatly in building up live stock industry. Denver now has five packing houses doing a business of $9,000,000 a year.

A bill that requires one tenth of all inhabited alleys in Washington City be eliminated yearly is submitted to Congress. This means the substituting of minor streets not less than 50 feet wide for the unsightly alley. The method used will be condemnation of property by commissioners. The property so condemned will be sold to the bidders from among the evicted tenants on a long time payment plan.

Beebe Plain, Vermont has a building containing a double post-office. The structure is cut diagonally by the Canada line, being almost equally divided by the boundary. The northern half contains Beebe Canada and the southern half the office of Beebe Plain, Vermont. As a result of postal regulations regarding the transfer of mails a letter mailed at the Vermont office for the Canada office across the hall, travels 290 miles before delivery. A letter posted at Beebe Plain, Vermont, for Beebe, Canada, will go south on the Boston and Main railroad from Beebe Junction, Quebec, to White River Junction, Virginia, 111 miles and return on the same route, and thus continues its way to Sherbrook, Canada, 34 miles farther. There it is again transferred and returns to Beebe, Canada. After having a ride of 24 hours and going 290 miles, it arrives at its destination, 10 feet from where it started.

It takes $55,000,000 to pay interest on the public debt of New York City. Then $37,000,000 goes to the public schools and $5,000,000 to charitable schools. Altogether the taxpayers have to pay into the city treasury $196,500,000. The average increase for several years back has been ten million dollars per year.

GARRISON HOME FROM BIG DITCH

Secretary of War Says Panama Canal Seems Finished.

New York, Nov. 11.—Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrison and his party returned from their visit to the Panama canal by the Panama liner Colon. Mr. Garrison said that "everything was lovely" on the isthmus and told of a trip through the canal from the Atlantic end as far as Culebra cut. "The canal seems finished," said Mr. Garrison. "We went through the great Gatun locks, the gates swinging for us as if they had been working for years; then we slipped through into Gatun lake and finally into the wonderful Culebra cut."

General Edward M. Weaver, of the party, said he had inspected the fortifications of the canal and that the work was proceeding satisfactorily.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

May 30, 1872.

Mr. F. G. Shaw, in 1871, purchased the Kirk house and immediately began on the task of cleaning up. Mr. Shaw is from Ripley and those who stop at the "Washington House," are fully aware of his arrival. Mr. E. W. Shaw is the gentlemanly clerk and is always attentive to the wants of his guests. The "Judge" may always be found where needed. He devotes most of his time to the dining room and is always pleasant, courteous, with a smile for every one. All who stop at the house are made happy.

Merchants and Farmers Bank. This bank was established in 1872, with a capital of $150,000. Mr. M. Pavey was elected president and M. Sharp, cashier. Mr. S. is an experienced and able banking man. The directors are M. Pavey, A. M. Stimson, Henry Kirk, E. L. Ford, George Dahl, James Willis, and John Sayre. The stockholders number 125 and number our best citizens of town and county. Mr. W. C. Tanzey is the gentlemanly bookkeeper. May the bank continue to prosper.

C. Duffee and Sons. Established in 1865 in a small 10x20 frame store on Court street, business increased with such rapidity that it was necessary to find larger and more commodious quarters which they did in 1866, by moving into the present store in the bank block. The store is a fine one and well adapted for their line. In 1869 they were burned out, but being well insured immediately began business again. Mr. Duffee is a gentleman of energy and perseverance and has built for himself a fine big business.

THE POOR AND MODERN PEDESTRAIN

Chug!
Chug!
Gilligilling!
Gilligilling!
Gilligilling!

The pedestrian paused at the intersection of two busy streets and looked about. An automobile was rushing at him from one direction, a motorcycle from another, an auto-truck was coming from behind, and a taxicab was speedily approaching.

Zip-zip! Zing-clug!
He looked up and saw directly over him was a runaway airship in rapid descent. There was but one chance. He was standing on a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it, he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole just in time to be run over by a subway train.

Views Of Others

A NEEDED LAW.

The arrest and conviction of a local man a few days ago for driving his automobile while drunk should point a warning to all joy riders and should render the streets of the city safer for pedestrians and drivers alike. Such wanton disregard of the ordinary rules of safety renders the automobilist more dangerous than a wild beast and should bring the heaviest penalties upon him.

Until recently there was no law which would reach and punish the automobile owner or chauffeur who drove his car while under the influence of alcohol. As long as he did not meet with an alert policeman or fall afoul of the law by running down some one, he could drive about with impunity. Investigation, however, disclosed that many of the automobile accidents were caused by the driver of the machine being drunk and that hundreds of people in Ohio were run down yearly by machines under the guidance of drunken chauffeurs. Consequently a law was enacted making it a crime for any one to operate a machine upon the streets of the city while under the influence of alcohol.

The law was a wise one. The majority of intoxicated drivers are joy riders, many of them boys who have taken machines belonging to their employers or relatives without permission. It is seldom that the automobile owner drinks to excess while engaged in the operation of his machine. He knows the risks too well and realizes that he is responsible for any accidents which may happen. Yet the man who drinks to excess is dangerous when he has the control of a high powered automobile whether he be owner or employee or merely a plain thief and some means to check him are imperative.

The new measure should be enforced to the limit. If allowed to become a dead letter measure little attention will be paid to it. If every violation of the measure is followed by summary punishment, a respect for the law will be bred in the hearts of everyone. Strict enforcement means that the streets of the city will be safer for pedestrians. It means the difference between life and death for young and old alike and between health and a sick and crippled body. There are no extenuating circumstances when a man is brought before the court charged with an offense under the new law and the people are behind any judge who has the nerve to give the offender the maximum punishment allowed by the law.—Springfield Sun.

Rub MUSTEROLE on That Sore, Tight Chest!

Try this clean, white, soothing ointment. See how quickly it brings relief. MUSTEROLE does all that pany. Cleveland, Ohio, and we will use the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to do in the days of our grandmothers, but it does it without the blister. Doctors and nurses frankly recommend MUSTEROLE for sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Congestion, Plurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet—Colds in the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage paid.

Prof. J. C. Budlong, South Lynn, Conn., says: "You truly good remedy Musterole, has saved my life. I was troubled for years with Asthma, Pleurisy, and allied troubles. I could gain no relief whatever. I used but a small amount of your truly remarkable remedy, and today I am a thoroughly well man in consequence. It is a Godsend to poor, suffering humanity. Refer to me. All letters gladly answered."

Churches Themselves Must First Be Reformed Before They Will Accomplish Much

By the Rev. Dr. WILLIAM S. RAINSFORD, Former Rector of St. George's Church, New York City

IS THE CHURCH TO INSPIRE AND GUIDE THE INEVITABLE SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL MOVEMENT OF THE DAY, OR IS SHE TO STAND ALOOF OR OPPOSE IT? THE CHURCHES MUST THEMSELVES BE RADICALLY REFORMED BEFORE THEY CAN ACCOMPLISH MUCH.

The fact should be frankly recognized both by those who deplore it and by those who approve that the weight and influence of all our churches are today conservative.

Here and there individual reformers in pew or in pulpit lift voices of protest against evident wrongs or seek to enlist the church's organization in the cause of radical reform. Their following is small. Their PROTEST SOON FALLS UNHEEDED.

These progressives may succeed in organizing societies. They do not succeed in altering the conservative attitude of the main body.

The wage earner has small voice in the matter. The modern church is seldom organized so as to reach him. He has DROPPED THE CHURCH OR THE CHURCHES HAVE DROPPED HIM.

THE CHURCHES ARE DYING OF DRY ROT.

The church DOES NOT REPRESENT TODAY THE WHOLE PEOPLE, as once it did.

In a democratic age and country the AMERICAN CHURCHES ARE ARISTOCRATIC. The great churches have for many years deliberately catered for and followed the well housed, well clothed, well to do in the community.

HUNTING SEASON OPENS SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK

Rabbits About the Only Game in Fayette County That Can be Killed This Season.

SPECIAL EFFORTS TO ARREST ALL VIOLATORS.

Persons May Hunt Upon Their Own Lands or Lands They Have Under Lease Without License, But All Others Must Carry License and Display Badges.

The near approach of the open season for hunting rabbit has sent quite a number of persons into the county clerk's office after licenses, and so far he has issued 116 permits to hunt.

Rabbit are reported quite plentiful this season, and they will be about the only game that Mr. Nimrod can kill this season, as quail, ruffed grouse and Carolina dove are protected until November 15, 1915, by which time quail are expected to be plentiful.

COUNTY CONVENTION PLANS ARE FORMING

The county convention of the Knights of Pythias lodges in this county, which will be held in the handsome large parlors of Confidence lodge, promises to be a big affair, and a large number of Knights from every lodge in the county is expected at the meeting Monday night, November 17.

Past Grand Chancellor Jacob Woehrle will be here, and office deputy, Chas. P. Smith, of the Grand Chancellor's office will also be present. Grand Chancellor S. A. Hoskins is not certain whether he can attend.

The splendid degree staff of Confidence lodge will give a drill during the evening. A number of the staff have recently received new uniforms and the guards will give their best drill work.

"Eats" are promised after the meeting is held.

GREEN MUST GO BACK TO GREENFIELD

Upon advice received from Marshal O. M. Allen, of Jeffersonville, Tuesday morning, Chief McCoy met the morning D. T. & I. train and placed under arrest Clarence Green, of Greenfield, who is wanted by the authorities of Greenfield to answer to a charge of failure to provide.

He was placed in the county jail until an officer could arrive from Greenfield and take him back to face the charge.

Green has been working on a farm near Jeffersonville, and when he learned that the marshal at that place was after him, he quietly boarded the train in an effort to escape to Jackson, where his mother resides.

HORSES POURING IN FOR THE BIG HORSE SALE THIS WEEK

Dozens of horses are pouring into this city for the Red Letter Sale of the Ohio Horse Sales Company, which will be held at the sales pavilion Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Three car loads of choice animals, one from Urbana, another from Cincinnati and the third from Chillicothe, arrived Tuesday morning, and the horses were unloaded and taken immediately to the sales barn.

From all directions the horses have been pouring in overland, and by Wednesday morning when the sale opens it is expected that fully 175 or even 200 head will be ready for the sale.

Quite a number of prominent horse buyers from this and adjoining states are on the scene and more are pouring in on every train. Indications point to a most successful sale, and a great many choice animals are to be found among the large number consigned.

Col. John Pease, the widely known live stock auctioneer from Vandalia, arrived Monday night and is ready to take the block at the opening of the sale Wednesday morning. He will sell all of the animals.

In addition to the large number of outside buyers, many Fayette countians who are in the market for good animals, will be on the ground ready to purchase what suits them.

NO MORE CHANGES FOR THE PRESENT

The B. & O. terminal at this point has proven an even greater success than anticipated, it is claimed, as the freight traffic is much easier handled. So far no plans have been made public for increasing the trackage or establishing a round house or other facilities, and talk on any radical changes has been branded by local employees as "sand house dope".

It is believed that ultimately there will be some track changes in this city and if the terminal is enlarged some other changes may follow.

No late developments have occurred in connection with the proposal to build a new transfer connecting the C. H. & D. and B. & O. roads just west of the Union Station.

HUGE SNOW DRIFTS STOP THE D. T. & I.

Snow drifts variously estimated at 10 to 15 feet in depth tied up the D. T. & I. at Thackery, 10 miles north of Springfield, Monday, and passenger train No. 1 was annulled Monday night, so that it was necessary to make up a train at Thackery to take the place of the stalled train.

It was expected that it would require the greater part of today to shovel the tracks clear of the huge drifts.

Passenger trains Tuesday morning were running nearly on time.

MRS. O. H. P. BELMONT

Tells of Suffragists' Efforts to Free Mrs. Bessie Wakefield.

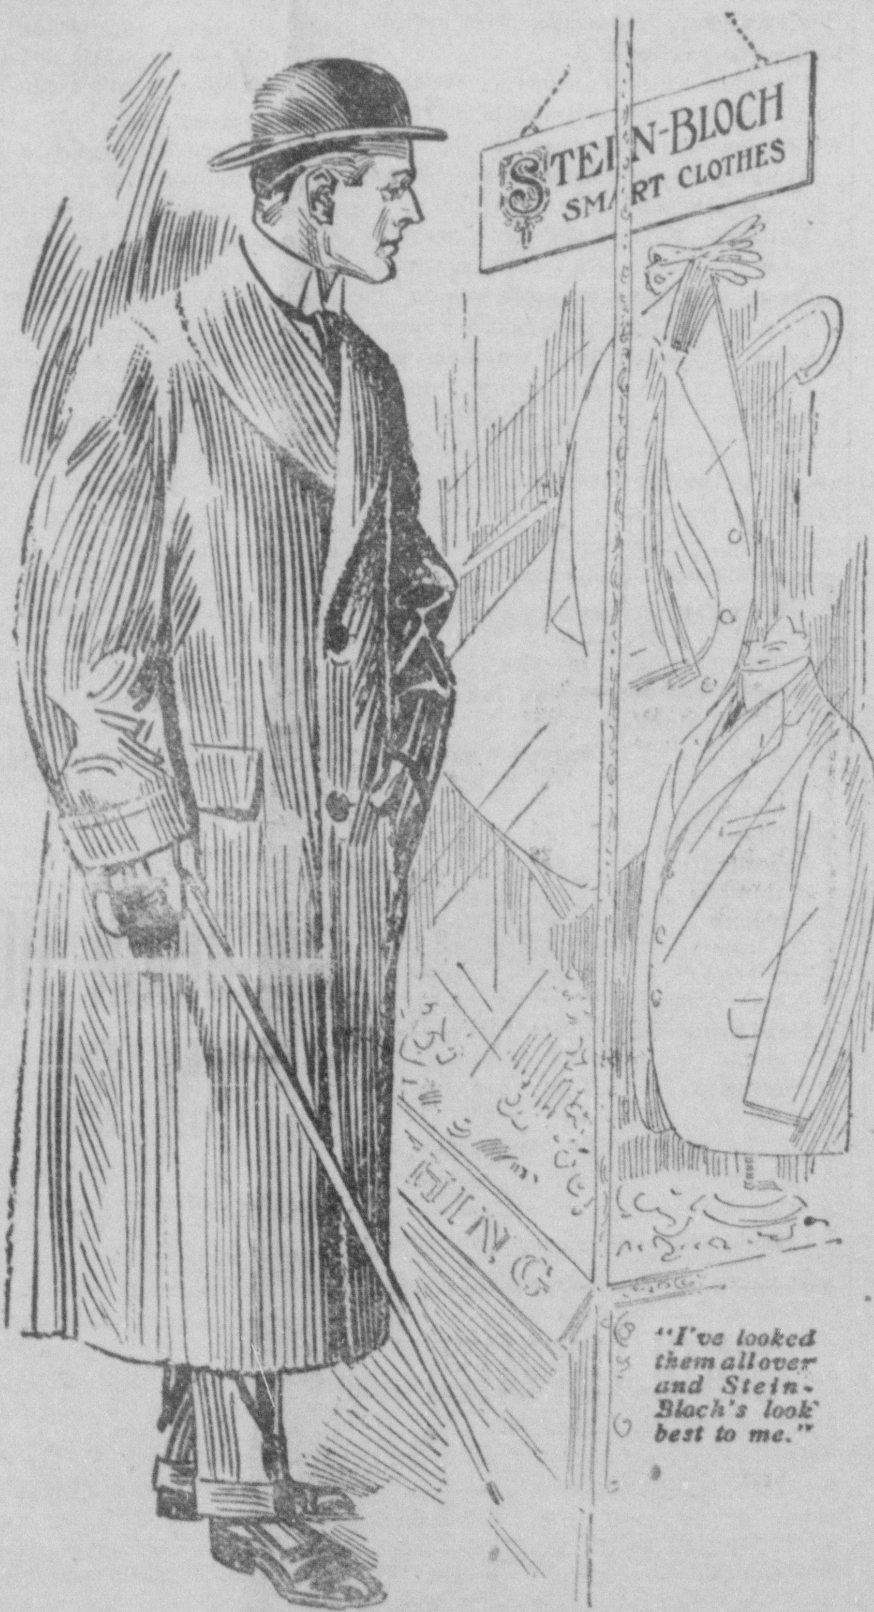

MRS. BELMONT HAS LAST WORD

Takes Both Men and Women to Deal With Men and Women.

New York, Nov. 11.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave out an interview on the effort that is being made by the Connecticut suffragists to free Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, convicted of the murder of her husband. "This woman was tried, convicted and sentenced by men," said Mrs. Belmont. "It takes both men and women to deal with men and women, and we want the same justice for both. But justice is a hard thing to get. When Anthony Comstock came to see me, he said he was going to have the girls who were selling 'The Suffragist' arrested. 'Don't arrest those girls who are doing what I tell them to do for $5 a week,' I said. 'arrest me, I'm the person responsible.' 'Oh, no, Mrs. Belmont,' he replied, 'I have too much consideration for your position.'"

"At Mrs. Pankhurst's Carnegie hall meeting on Nov. 24," added Mrs. Belmont, "doctors, ministers and men prominent in public life will discuss the articles which have been gathered into a book called 'Plain Facts About a Great Evil.' Mrs. Pankhurst will stay with me as before."

"I've looked them all over and Stein-Bloch's look best to me."

Carl Fisher's Enamorata Is in Another Sensation

Woman Who Sued Former Frankfort Man for $500,000 Heart Balm and Succeeded in Securing Payment in the Sum of $25,000, Married in Novel Manner to Chicagoan.

Local citizens will recall the sensational breach of promise suit in which Carl Fisher, the Indianapolis millionaire, formerly of Frankfort, in Ross county, was compelled to pay $25,000 heart balm to a woman who sued him for $500,000 for trifling with her affections.

The woman has once more appeared in the limelight, and a dispatch from Chicago tells the story as follows:

"A love marriage" bound by contracts instead of religious vows, today joined Miss Gertrude Wakefield Hassler, concert and church singer, to Frederick A. Carpenter, Chicago business man. The ceremony was one of the most unique ever performed in this part of the country. The contracts were signed at Kenosha, Wis. Miss Hassler, an attractive young woman who sang her way into many hearts, came into public notice recently through her $500,000 "love balm" suit against Carl G. Fisher, an auto race promoter of Indianapolis, Ind. The suit was compromised for $25,000 cash.

The contracts which Miss Hassler and Carpenter signed, follow:

"I, Gertrude Wakefield Hassler, do by the signing of this contract give myself to Frederick A. Carpenter, to be his lawful wife, to have, to hold and to love. I promise to be faithful so long as he proves true, and I will strive to fill with a vast measure of contentment each day of our lives thus joined."

I, Frederick A. Carpenter, by this contract, take as my lawful wife, Gertrude W. Hassler, and I solemnly promise and agree to be faithful in words and thoughts and deeds, to protect and love and devote my life to her to bring the happiness and content she so well deserves.

After the reading and signing of the contracts, Miss Hassler's mother put both her daughter's hands in Carpenter's and said: "May all the good and truth of the universe combine to keep your hearts bright."

In Social Circles MISS FLORENCE USTICK, SOCIETY EDITOR

The series of brilliant pre-nuptial affairs in which the younger society matrons and girls have participated in compliment to Miss Glascock, was brought to a close today with a beautiful bridal luncheon, at which Miss Glascock entertained twenty-four of her chosen friends.

It was a lavender pink luncheon, the delicate color scheme exquisitely carried out at small tables and one large circular table, where Miss Glascock was seated with the members of the Philo club, the club of her special set.

Gaiety was the keynote at all the tables throughout the entire luncheon, but it was at the bridal table that reminiscences, mirth and wit reached the flood tide and launched all manner of good wishes for the bride of tomorrow.

This center table was a vision, with Madeira luncheon set and nosegays of pink lavender pen pon chrysanthemums. In the center a large nosegay, with its quaint framing of paper lace, rested on a willow plaque and small individual nosegays, the exact duplicates of the large one, were at each cover. The same idea was introduced in the decorations of the smaller tables, and also the individual nosegays. Tapers, under violet shades, in crystal candlesticks, shed soft illumination and the place-cards bore brides and grooms with their dress suit cases ready to travel.

A five-course luncheon, most elaborate in its delicate viands was served, the bridal idea developed throughout to the ice cream moulds of the last course.

Miss Glascock's marriage to Mr. Louis Dickey Saxton takes place Wednesday evening at half past seven o'clock at Grace church.

Fayette county friends will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lipka (nee Jessie McElwain) have recently returned from three months of travel in Europe and have sent out "At Home" cards to their friends after November 10th, at 1867 Deacon street, Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Lipka, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McElwain, formerly of Good Hope, was a popular teacher in the public schools of this city before going to Boston to take a course in elocution and physical culture.

The Terpsichorean club, which was a factor in promoting the gaiety of last winter's social life, is sending out invitations for a series of dances, which promise to be conspicuous events in this season's society annals.

Two hundred and fifty invitations went out today, including a number of society folks in nearby towns.

The dances will be held in the K. of P. castle, its beautiful ballroom and fine floor ideal for Terpsichorean devotees, on the following dates: Friday night, November 14th; November 27, December 1st and 25th, January 9th and 23rd, February 6th and 2nd, March 6th and 20th.

The Thanksgiving dance on Thursday night, November the 27th, and the Christmas dance, Thursday night, December 25th, will be specially featured.

The committee having all arrangements in supervision is composed of Messrs. Clarence Craig, Alex. H. Ballard and Earl McCoy.

The Court Street Bridge club was hospitably entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. D. H. C. Bowen.

Invitations went out Tuesday for two card parties to be given by Mrs. O. T. Grafton and Mrs. Frank Perrill, the 18th and 19th of this month.

One of the most delightful of a long series of W. R. C. social sessions was enjoyed this afternoon, when Mrs. Virginia Willis, assisted by a number of W. R. C. women, entertained at the handsome home of Mrs. Willis' daughter, Mrs. Scott Hopkins.

The assisting hostesses were Mesdames F. G. Carpenter, Nye Gregg, Edgar Snyder, W. E. Taylor, V. J. Hoppes, Michaels, Waters, Larrimer and Alta B. Gray, of Jeffersonville.

Under the direction of Mrs. Carpenter the afternoon's guests gave special attention to the commemoration of the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, on the 19th of November.

In a contest the women vied as to who could wrest the most words from the memorable word of "Gettysburg" and a prize was also given to the one giving the correct date of the anniversary.

Miss Anna Stafford contributed beautiful piano solos to the social pleasure of the day.

The national colors were used in decoration and a most tempting luncheon.

Mrs. Roy McClure pleasantly entertained the "500" club this afternoon.

Miss Marie Weller delightfully entertained Mrs. Bowman's Sunday School class of the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon.

The afternoon was spent in games and music, after which Miss Weller, assisted by Miss Helen Parrett, served a delicious luncheon.

of Missouri Renounces His Insurgency—Leader Kern Explains.

Washington, Nov. 11. — President Wilson's alleged "interference" with the right of congress to initiate legislation provoked a storm in the senate when Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, a Democrat, charged that executive dictation alone had prevented the senate from agreeing on a banking and currency bill. He predicted that the action of the president in applying pressure through the medium of a senate "conference," called for Wednesday, would retard rather than expedite banking and currency legislation.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that he would not be bound by the dictum of the party conference or caucus. On the other hand, Senator Reed of Missouri renounced his insurgency, declaring that he was "a party man who never drew a pencil through the name of a Democrat." Mr. Reed added he would abide by any decision reached in a party conference.

"Since the senate adjourned last Saturday," said Senator Hitchcock, "a new situation has arisen in the consideration of banking and currency legislation which I desire to call to the attention of the senate. The house bill for federal reserve banks came to our committee on Sept. 18. Hearings on it had already been started and continued up to Oct. 25. Up to last Wednesday progress was so encouraging that the general expectation was that a report could be reached by the end of this week, Nov. 15. A number of changes were made."

Mr. Hitchcock then reviewed these changes and said: "At this juncture outside influences began to be felt upon the committee, the reactionary periods. We were told the president could not accept the decisions reached by the majority of the committee and we were urged to retrace our steps. I knew full well the force of such an appeal and I have no criticism for those who yield to it. In my opinion the banking and currency question is not political and should not become so. The senate is the proper place to discuss this bill. It should be considered here in public and not in caucus or conference in secret."

Senator Kern, leader of the majority, declared that the affair called for Wednesday afternoon was not to be a caucus that would bind any individual senator, but a "conference," advisory, in character, of Democratic senators to take counsel with one another.

BAND TO ACCOMPANY BUCKEYE CORN BOYS

Congressman Ansberry seems to have started something. In a letter to T. P. Riddle, of Lima, O., he calls attention to the fact that Ohio has a boys band of which we may be justly proud and he proposes that this band be taken on the trip to Washington. He accompanied his suggestion with a subscription to the amount of $25.00 and now the movement is on.

Mr. Riddle, the Treasurer and Director of the tour, makes this comment:—"Unquestionably a good band would make a hit all along the line and afford great inspiration and pleasure to these far boys and girls. I am therefore recommending to the officers of the County Crop Improvement Associations and to others interested in the success of this movement that the necessary fund be raised by popular subscription."

APOPLEXY KILLS HARLAN PAGE AMEN

A dispatch from Exeter, N. H., tells of the death of Harlan Page Amen, principal of Phillips Exeter Academy, and who grew up near Sinking Springs, Ohio, and is known in this county.

The dispatch says in part: "Death followed a shock of apoplexy, with which he was stricken yesterday. He was found unconscious in his home beside a telephone to which he had gone, apparently to summon a physician."

"Mr. Amen was 60 years old. His early education was gained by his own efforts, both at the high school in Portsmouth, and at Exeter. He was graduated from Harvard in 1879. In 1895 he became principal of Phillips Exeter Academy."

DEPUTY SEALER HERE ON BUSINESS

State Deputy Sealer of Weights and Measures, Hilton R. Diegle, of Columbus, was in this city Monday conferring with Deputy Sealer Jones regarding the work of the department and expressed himself well pleased with the manner in which the work has been conducted in this city and county.

The recent decision of Judge Rodgers has been somewhat of a stumbling block in the work of the department, but within a short time a decision from the Supreme court is expected which will settle the question of legality of certain parts of the weights and measures law.

Mr. Diegle went from this city to Dayton to see the city sealer at that place.

WILL BE TRIED FRIDAY MORNING

Some interesting developments are expected in connection with the trial of Frank Allen, Friday morning, when he will be tried in police court on a charge of pointing firearms in a menacing manner.

He was released under bond, and will be represented by Rankin and Rankin. He returned to his home at Bookwalter Monday, announcing his intention of not interfering with his father-in-law or wife.

The young man broke down a number of times when talking about his wife and how he loved her.

DEMANDS ARE TO BE DENIED

National Commission Will Not Disturb Rules Regarding Waivers.

New York, Nov. 11.—Two of the 17 demands filed by the Baseball Players' fraternity with the national commission will be denied, according to information that comes from organized ball men. These demands cover the rules regarding waivers. The commission will decide that the practice of asking for waivers on major league players and then withdrawing them when claims are filed must not be disturbed, for the reason that such methods do not affect the standing or the salary of a player and in many instances serve as a warning for misconduct.

FIRE AND WRECK CAUSE LATE TRAINS

A fire in Norwood caused B. & O. passenger train No. 108 to be considerably behind time, Monday evening, and after the train had proceeded on its way and was making up a little of the lost time, it was again halted by a freight which had two cars off the track.

As a result of the double delay the train arrived in this city nearly four hours late.

Other trains were also delayed by the fire and wreck.

ECONOMY

BY THE AD WRITER OF THE

IN BUILDING, 22 W.GAY ST.,
COLUMBUS, O

Third. Economy is beneficial to children. To be extravagant before children is a great wrong to them. It is much better for them to be taught economy both in the use of their money and in the use of their time. It would be well for these children to have savings accounts in The Buckeye and receive four and five per cent interest thereon. This will teach them to be economical and thrifty. NOVEMBER CROP REPORT JUST OUT

The Ohio and United States crop report for the month of November has just been issued, and shows the estimated conditions as follows:

Corn yield in Ohio in 1912—174,410,000 bushels; 1913, 149,775,000 bushels.

In the United States the production in 1912 was 3,124,746,000 bushels and this year it is placed at 2,463,017,000 bushels, or a shortage of 661,729,000 bushels.

Potatoes, in Ohio, 1912—20,832,000 bushels; 1913, 12,462,000 bushels. In the United States, 1912, 420,647,000 bushels, and in 1913, 328,550,000 bushels.

The tobacco crop is below the average, the production in 1912 being 79,304,000 pounds in Ohio and this year 61,425,000 pounds, with about the same ratio throughout the United States.

Apples are 24 per cent of the normal crop in this state. Last year the percentage was 53 per cent.

TOO MUCH SNOW FOR NEW MOTOR BUS

Too much snow and undried paint prevented the Baker motor bus from leaving the factory at Springfield Monday to make its initial run between Jeffersonville and South Charleston, and it will probably be several days before the bus is started. The road between Jeffersonville and South Charleston is almost obstructed in many places, where huge drifts of snow, five to seven feet in depth, have formed.

He has been identified as the man who recently passed two one dollar bills for five dollar bills in Chillicothe a couple of weeks ago.

He still protests his innocence.

ANNUAL ELECTION ROYAL CHAPTER O. E. S

Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., held its annual election at the regular meeting Monday night.

The officers elected were worthy matron, Margaret Colwell; worthy patron, Ed L. Bush; assistant matron, Mae Duffee; conductress, Martha Mark; assistant conductress, Anna McFadden; secretary, Lora Gray; treasurer, Nona Fine.

It is expected that the installation will be held in two weeks.

CASE CONTINUED UNTIL TUESDAY

The charge of illegal fishing, lodged against Sampson Grove and the Polk brothers, of near Sabina, came up for hearing before Justice Craig, Tuesday, but upon application the cases were continued until Tuesday, November 18th, when the men will again face Justice Craig.

The charges were filed some ten days ago by Deputy J. S. Sackett, and the crime is alleged to have been committed on Rattlesnake creek.

54 HOURS WORK A WEEK.

Limit For Women and Girls Under New Pennsylvania Law.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Pennsylvania's new woman's employment law is now in effect. The limit of hours of labor for women and girls is fifty-four a week, except in the home and on the farm. The new law prohibits the employment of women or girls for more than six consecutive days and not more than ten hours in any one day.

Forty-five minutes must be allowed for the midday meal and a rest period of the same length after continuous employment for six hours. Night employment is limited to telephone operators over eighteen and to managers, superintendents, clerks and stenographers.

The department of labor and industry, Commissioner Jackson says, will be reasonable and work to bring about the conditions required by the statute without entailing unnecessary hardship. The law will cause many changes in industrial and mercantile establishments. Its applicability to theatrical people will be worked out after advice from the attorney general's department.

G. O. P. COMMITTEE WOULD REORGANIZE

Washington, D. C., November 11.—Plans for the reorganization of the Republican party were discussed by the law committee of the Republican National committee. Proposals for changing the number of delegates and representation in the national convention along lines put forward by the Progressive faction of the party were taken up. The recommendations of the committee will be considered by the national committee on December 15th.

WARENS LAW KNOCKED OUT

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, November 11.—Because it provides for a graduated tax, Judge E. B. Kinkaid, of the Common Pleas court today declared the Warens Automobile law, passed by the last legislature unconstitutional. The law the court holds, violates that provision of the constitution which provides that all taxes shall be uniform. The suit in the decision was based, was filed by the Ohio State Automobile association, declaring the law unconstitutional. The law based license fees on horse power.

COURT KILLS OFF JOINT OWNERSHIP

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, November 11.—Joint ownership of the Kanawa & Michigan R. R. by the Lake Shore and the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. must cease, the United States Supreme court held today in the suit of the government against the companies, on the ground of alleged monopoly of coal carrying from the Hocking Valley regions. Application for the receivers of the Sunday Creek Coal company and the Continental Coal and Coke company was denied.

WRITES UPSIDE DOWN.

Boy, Normal Otherwise, Sings and Figures Backward.

Huntington, W. Va.—Russell Baker, eight, has been attending school for two years and makes all his letters and figures upside down. He writes from left to right and sings his low notes high and his high notes low.

Dr. C. M. Hawes, accompanied by Dr. Lindsey Vinson, specialist in children's diseases, spent hours with the child endeavoring to find exactly what was wrong, but they confess themselves mystified. The only explanation they attempt is that the boy's mind and sight are as a camera's eye, in which everything looks upside down. The boy is perfectly normal and has no other defects.

BEE STINGS HALT WEDDING.

Man Requires Medical Treatment Just Before the Ceremony.

Moselle, Miss.—Dr. R. H. Cranford while preparing for his wedding hitched his horse too near some beehives. The bees attacked the horse, and in unhitching the animal Dr. Cranford was so severely stung that he became unconscious. The horse wrecked the buggy and probably will die. Dr. Cranford was revived by fellow physicians, and his marriage with Miss Lena Miller took place about an hour later.

Dr. Cranford is treasurer of the town and surgeon-physician for the New Orleans Northeastern railroad.

"CRACK SHOT" GLASSES.

Men Who Guaranteed to Make Marks with Spectacles Indicted.

St. Louis, Mo.—"Wearing these glasses will enable you to shoot the smallest bird from the tallest tree on a hazy morning."

This statement contained in a circular was one of the causes of a federal indictment against Morris and Harry Goldman, who faced trial.

They sold 200,000 pairs of the glasses a year, it is stated. The spectacles cost them 23 cents apiece.

They guaranteed, the government alleges, that the use of the glasses would make any one a crack shot.

BULL DERAILS A TRAIN.

Accident Occurs as Cattle Herd is Crossing the Track.

Olathe, Kan.—Ten cars of a St. Louis and San Francisco freight train was derailed when the train struck a bull weighing 2,000 pounds near here. The engine and tender passed over the animal without being derailed, but when the empty cars struck it they were thrown from the track.

A herd of cattle was crossing the track when the train approached and three of the animals were killed.

Calls With Conscience Money.

Spokane, Wash.—The Northern Pacific city passenger office received $10.70 in conscience money from Henry Peterson of Los Angeles, who appeared in person at the city office and paid R. S. Skinner the money for a ride from Spokane to Butte, which, he says, he stole twenty years ago.
